BYLAWS

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These are listed by Districts.

4. Each church shall mail monthly reports to the Conference Office within ten days after the close of each month. In addition, each church shall mail semi-annual reports to the Conference Office by the tenth of July and the tenth of January; and shall mail an annual report to the Conference Office by January 10th. These reports shall be on forms made available for purchase from the Conference Office.

Voting for Pastor

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on the last Sunday of April or the first Sunday of May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Work of the Stationing Committee

1. The Stationing Committee shall deliberate on matters related to ministerial assignments and shall have ample time for interviews with lay delegates and ministers before reaching a final decision.

2. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Stationing Committee for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

3. Ministers shall be informed of their appointment during consultation with the Stationing Committee. If an adjustment has to be made, the committee shall grant the minister another consultation.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church delegate(s) makes a request to the Stationing Committee contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Committee. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

5. No person, other than duly elected delegates, shall consult with the Stationing Committee concerning pastoral assignments, unless the pastor and delegates involved are invited to attend the meeting.

6. The Stationing Committee report shall be read at the close of the Quadrennial Conference session.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church a minimum of six (6) months before the convening of the Conference. This requirement shall not apply to ministers transferring from another Conference.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license, who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine, reputation, and credit rating.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern Bible College, Emmanuel College, The School of Christian Ministries at Emmanuel College, or a course of study approved by the General Conference. These studies may be in residence or by correspondence.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

1. No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Official Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

1. All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly,the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference Office by the tenth of the month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job; it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary semi-annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of a pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church which the pastor is leaving will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the Annual Conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist without giving at least thirty days' notice, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate of twenty-eight cents ($.28) per mile shall be paid for all official travel. This is subject to adjustment according to the rate adopted by GBA, GEB, or General Conference.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses of retired ministers.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given a three weeks vacation with pay each year. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate, not just the years at his current pastorate.

One to ten years .....two weeks
Eleven years and up.....three weeks

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his department.

Local Church--Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not frequently visit to the extent that it causes confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor.

Use of Conference Facilities

1. Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of A Minister

1. In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the Office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating Committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and auxiliary department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

4. The Conference and Camp Meeting shall be separated and conducted at times independent of each other during the year.

EIGHTY-SECOND ANNUAL SESSION
JUNE 11, 1992

The Assistant Superintendent, Rev. Jimmy Whitfield, welcomed the Conference delegation and shared a Scriptural challenge from Mark 5: 18-19. He then led the Conference in prayer.

The Music Director, Rev. David Wheeler, led the delegation in several praise choruses.

The Conference Superintendent, Rev. T. Elwood Long, introduced the Presiding Officer, Rev. Jesse Simmons, the Vice-Chairman of the Denomination. Brother Simmons greeted the Conference and asked them to focus on worship throughout this Conference.

There was a motion to accept the printed agenda as presented by the Conference Board. MOTION PASSED.

Rev. Simmons began the first Training Workshop for the day. The subject of this workshop was praise and worship as an important doctrine of the Bible. He exhorted the delegates to begin the practice of praise in worship and fulfill this Biblical commandment of the Lord.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. Gary Strickland, was recognized by the Chairman to announce the official Conference registration. A total of 373 delegates were present and registered:

Conference Clerical Delegates	-	229
Conference Lay Delegates	-	138
Non-Conference Visitor Delegates (granted seat and voice)	-	6

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

The Lord has so graciously showered this Conference with blessings. Our heritage is grand, the present is promising and the future is inviting. The Conference Board, Office Staff, Department Heads, ministers and church congregations have worked harmoniously to help bring us to our present development. I am grateful to all of you.

I have driven the thousands of necessary miles to minister in the churches, meet with church boards and pastors, and as opportunity afforded me, I have visited our ministers in hospitals and homes. Conference, Christian Education and Evangelism Boards and Missions Committee meetings have been numerous. Oversight of the Falcon Campmeeting, Piney Grove Campmeeting, Christian Workers Institute, participation and/or attendance in the Christian Education Talent and Bible Quiz meetings and Evangelism and Missions meetings have been in my busy schedule.

Eight District Conferences and four Bi-District Conference Evangelism Rallies continue to be great times of celebration and promotional training for our people. I commend our laity and clergy for faithful attendance at these functions.

I have represented the Conference at GBA Meetings. I continue to serve at this time on the Planning and Budgetary Committee of this Denomination and as Secretary of the Falcon Children's Home Board. I also serve on the Board of Education for Emmanuel College.

I thank you for giving to me a capable and dedicated Conference Board. They work diligently together for the good of all. I esteem these brethren highly. The work of Women's Ministries President, Mary Belle Johnson, Conference Christian Education Director, Brother Bobby Forehand, and Evangelism/Missions Director, Brother D. Chris Thompson, speak distinctly and effectively. These people are Holy Spirit anointed leaders who show their love for the work of the Lord's Church.

I praise the Lord for our gains, however, this is no time to lessen our efforts or relax our attention to the unfinished task that looms before us.

May I take a moment to thank each church and minister for your faithful financial support of the General Church and this Conference? It is with a grateful heart that I thank you for helping us get into the black in our financial operations. We urgently need your continued faithful support.

Revitalization of existing churches and the birth of new churches through an aggressive revivalistic and evangelistic thrust under Holy Ghost anointed preachers and lay members will enable us to reach our Target 2,000 goals and more for the Glory of God.

Our direction is upward, our step is onward as we build upon the sacrifice of those gone before us with loyalty equal theirs. We must enhance the work and pass it on to our children in the faith until Jesus Christ, our Lord, raptures His Bride.

T. Elwood Long, Superintendent
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

In Romans 10:14-15, we find the emphasis that God puts on His calling individuals to the Gospel ministry. "How shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent?" We are also told in I Corinthians 1:21 that, "It pleased God that by the foolishness of preaching men should be saved." Today we want to pay tribute to four men and one lady who have been very faithful to obey God in answering His call and in preaching His glorious Gospel. We are honoring them today not because they intend to stop, but only because they are reaching a new plateau.

It would be impossible to mention everything that has happened through their faithful service because all the results will not be in until time is no more. But, God knows every single thing and if He is giving a reward for a cup of cold water given in His Name (and He is), then He will surely recognize and reward these great people whom we are saluting today.

REV. MISS MARTHA LOUISE SMITH

Sister Louise Smith was born October 31, 1922 at Chocowinity, North Carolina to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith. She was born again into the family of God in January 1939 at the Hodges Chapel Church. After graduating from high school, she attended Holmes College of the Bible from 1941 to 1944 where she earned her Th.B. Degree. She continued her studies at Furman University until 1947 when she received her B.A. Degree. After graduating from Furman University, she taught school in Chocowinity until 1952.

In 1944 she had received her Local Minister's License and served as an evangelist until 1952. During this time she also served as Secretary for the Conference Youth Department and Secretary of the Conference Sunday School Department.

In 1952 she answered the call to the mission field and went to India where she served as a missionary for 25 years. She was ordained by Rev. T. A. Melton in India in 1954. In 1977, Sister Louise came home to care for her mother who was very ill. During the ten years she was home she did evangelistic and missions work.

In 1987, after her mother's death, she returned to the mission field. This time she went to South Africa where she served until 1992. Sister Louise will gladly tell you she has enjoyed her ministry and found it to be very fulfilling. We thank God for the great ministry that she has had and will continue to have for her Master.

REV. JOSEPH L. RUSSELL, JR.

Brother Joe Russell was born in Tarboro on August 13, 1928 to Joe L. and Margaret Russell. Rev. and Mrs. Russell moved to Fayetteville when Joe was one year old and he was saved at the age of six under the ministry of Evangelist Jesse James. As a teenager, Joe helped his father erect a gospel tent for evangelistic work in Fayetteville. He also assisted in the building of the Peniel Church.

After a brief time in the United States Air Force, Joe attended Holmes College of the Bible. He met and married Juanita Gore of Wilmington and they had a son, Joseph L. Russell, III.

Their first pastorate was at the Sharon Pentecostal Holiness Church, being assigned there in 1951. In 1955 they were assigned to pastor the Bethel church where they led the church in building a new parsonage. Joe and Juanita pastored several other churches where they saw God use them to accomplish many things. We will mention only a few here today.

Shiloh:	Bought new property and built new church building.
Saint Paul Greenville:	Bought new property and built new educational building.
Kinston First:	Enlarged sanctuary and educational building.
Roanoke Rapids:	Unifying and healing a divided church.
Person Street:	Bought land for parking; new organ was purchased; heating and air conditioning installed.
Emmanuel:	Bought house and land for parking; renovated sanctuary.
Lyon Memorial:	Paid off church indebtedness; installed new heating and air conditioning.
Sanford:	Sold old parsonage and established building fund for new educational building.
Chadbourn:	Purchased 4.8 acres of land; paid off pre-existing loan; refurbished parsonage; employed architect and completed drawings for total new facilities. The Chadbourn Church now stands debt free with money in the building fund and they are ready to begin building.

God bless you, Joe and Juanita, for the tremendous work you have done and are continuing to do for the Kingdom of God.

REV. JOSEPH GARLAND EDWARDS

Brother Garland was born May 20, 1929 in Johnston County, North Carolina to Willie and Annie Edwards. He was born again in a prayer meeting in June 1952. In 1953, he married Rosa Vernise Johnson. After his conversion, God used Brother Garland in many ways in the Moore's Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church. He served as Sunday School teacher, Lifeline Director, and deacon. Then God called him to preach. After receiving his Mission Worker's License, he was assigned the Vick's Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1973. In 1974, he received his Local Minister's License and went on to pastor the following churches: Vick's Chapel, Micro (where he led the church in installing a new heating and air conditioning plant), Selma, and Clayton (two times).

Brother Garland and Sister Rosa live in the Moore's Chapel Community where he serves the church as an assistant Sunday School teacher when he is not away preaching the gospel.

God bless you, Brother Garland, for your faithfulness and labor for Christ in His Kingdom.

REV. WILLIAM H. TYSON

Brother Tyson was born in Pitt County, North Carolina on August 4, 1929 to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tyson. He met and married Bertha Everette on April 21, 1951 and they were blessed with three children: Judith, Charles and Gregory.

On June 3, 1956, while listening to Oral Roberts on the radio, God wonderfully saved him. God called Brother William to preach and he received his Mission Worker's License. Soon after, he met the requirements and received his Local Minister's License and in June of 1973 he was ordained while pastoring at Swan Quarter.

During the ministry, Brother William has pastored the following churches: Swan Quarter, Pinetown (simultaneously for a short time), and Meadowbrook (two different times). He also serves as a local evangelist. During his tenure at Meadowbrook, he led the church in selling the old property and purchased 2.56 acres of land and erected a beautiful new building. Brother William says that when the building was laid off that God instructed him to stand within the lines and pray and there God assured him that He would supply the need. No doubt God has performed a lot of miracles in keeping His promise to him because the donations came in a miraculous way.

While the new building was being constructed, the congregation worshiped in Brother William's home. When his work was finished at Meadowbrook, the facilities were completed and the church was debt free.

May God bless you, Brother William, for your great work and faithfulness in His kingdom. We will be praying for you and your dear wife in her illness.

REV. MARTIN R. BRITTON

Brother Britton was born July 7, 1929 in Halifax County, North Carolina to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ray Britton. He married his wife, Lula, on December 24, 1946. They have four children: Verita, Glenda, Kaye, and Ray.

Brother Martin was saved in the Roanoke Rapids

Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1958. In February of 1959 he received his Mission Worker's License and in 1960 he received his Local Minister's License. He was ordained at the Conference in 1963. During the years of his ministry, he has pastored five churches: Niagara, Spring Hope, Alert, Weldon, and Taylor's Chapel.

While he was pastoring the Alert Church, he led them to unite with the North Carolina Conference and helped them to build new Sunday School rooms. While pastoring at Weldon, he led the church in refurbishing the sanctuary. At Taylor Memorial, God used Brother Britton in building and completely paying for a new parsonage.

During the years of his ministry, he has applied himself to studying and has earned no less than 20 diplomas and certificates from various schools, including Holmes College of the Bible and two other Bible colleges.

Brother Martin and Sister Lula live in Roanoke Rapids. God bless you Brother and Sister Britton for the service you have faithfully rendered for the Kingdom of God.

These good ministers are not about to stop their ministering for the Lord. They are, however, entering a new stage and will be very happy to be invited to fill the pulpits that are opened to them. Let us not just show them our appreciation for their years of service today, but let's continue to show it by calling upon them and letting God bless us through their unique gifts and calling.

May God's blessings rest upon them is our prayer. In addition to this report, we would ask that this Conference body express our appreciation by giving them and their faithful companions a standing round of applause.

Respectfully submitted,

Billy Wooten
Conference Board Member

MEMOIRS REPORT 1992

In I Samuel, chapter ten, the holy Chronicler records the choosing and public presenting of young Saul as God's choice for the first king of the nation of Israel. After the celebration ended, the prophet Samuel sent the people away and verse 26 says, "Saul also went home and there went with him a band of men whose hearts God had touched."

Success in the Kingdom of God is almost never the result of just one man's work. God has called out of the mass of humanity those who are willing to accept His call and obey unhesitatingly. Some will be leaders, others will be followers, but together they have the authority to "turn the world upside down" with the Gospel. They can effect changes for good that can only be accomplished through men "whose hearts God has touched."

Such were the men we pause to remember today. It is fitting that this memorial occur in the midst of a Conference Session. The men we recognize today were men who shared the common task of giving their lives to the business of the Kingdom and this hall was their headquarters.

REVEREND W. EDDIE MORRIS

W. Eddie Morris might have seemed an unlikely choice for a role in church leadership when he left a cotton mill to become a gospel minister, however when we examine his record of seven pastorates, twenty four years as Superintendent of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, twelve years as Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home and thirty two years on the General Board of Administration of this Denomination we recognize that like King Saul, Mr. Morris "stood head and shoulders above anyone else." (I Samuel 10:23)

The difference that distinguished Rev. Morris was his dedication to spiritual excellence. He never considered his Bible education completed, but was always in the process of going through the Bible one more time. The principles and integrity which were his trademark in ministry and leadership came from the pages of his Bible.

Rev. Morris' successes are a matter of public record. When he became Conference Superintendent there were 81 ministers, 2,113 church members in 77 churches. When he resigned he had ignited sufficient faith in those who served with him that together they had increased church membership to over 9,000, had 241 ministers and 162 churches. There is not much that pertains to the ministry in this Conference that has not been touched by the ministry of W. Eddie Morris. During his tenure as Superintendent of the Falcon Children's Home he led a building program which completed three homes, a gym, and air conditioned all the dormitories. When he retired he left a half million dollars in the treasury to complete a ten year building plan.

We give praise to God for Rev. Morris' leadership service and we pray "Do it again Lord". Send us men and women who will carry the torch of the gospel with a dedication that only occurs in those "whose hearts God has touched."
REVEREND W. EDDIE MORRIS MAY 31, 1907 - JUNE 16, 1991

REVEREND PERRY GORMAN AUTRY

Reverend Perry Gorman Autry gave 41 years of his 87 years to the ministry of this Conference. He is described by those who knew him best as a Christian gentleman with a spirit as gentle as a lamb, a man of prayer, and a man of positive conversation who never spoke derogatorily about anyone. His life is described as a living example of Christlikeness, character, courage, faithfulness, steadfastness and Christian consistency.

The Peniel and Holland's Chapel churches remember Brother Autry as a pastor with great sincerity and a holiness preacher who gave the very best he had to his service for the Lord.
REVEREND PERRY GORMAN AUTRY JULY 4, 1904 - DECEMBER 8, 1991

REVEREND DAVID ANSON KIRKLAND

Reverend David Anson Kirkland was born August 30, 1926 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina and died March 22, 1992 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina.

David became a member of the church in 1947 after attending regularly in his youth. He was granted Mission Workers License in 1969, Local Minister's License in 1977 and was ordained in 1985.

In addition to his pastoral church ministry, Rev. Kirkland was very active for years in an extention rest home ministry. He also ministered weekly on a radio program. Brother Kirkland's service was bi-vocational and he served Halifax Hosiery Mills for 49 years where he became Superintendent of Knitting.

He was recognized in his home community as a devoted pastor and respected as a participant in many community and civic organizations.

Reverend Kirkland was buried in the town he loved so much and called his home.

REVEREND JOHN WYNE BROOKS

John W. Brooks joined the North Carolina Conference in 1919 and was ordained in 1924. Soon after ordination Rev. Brooks and his wife Erna Mae were assigned as missionaries to South Africa. This assignment began a life long love affair with world missions which continued to warm Brother Brook's heart and soul literally until he died this past April. Sixty years of his life were spent in South Africa and Nigeria.

The consuming dream of his life was to see a thriving Bible school in West Africa. Land was purchased for this purpose while Rev. Brooks was on the field, but he retired with the dream not being fully realized. Rev. Brooks returned to Nigeria three years ago to participate in the dedication of the new buildings and campus of the West Africa Bible College which he organized in 1957 in rented facilities. He called that trip the "CROWNING EXPERIENCE" of his entire missionary career.

From high school here at Falcon to Holmes College of the Bible and into all the world was a journey John Brooks was able to accomplish because he was a man "whose heart God had touched" with a passion and zeal that could only be satisfied in obedience to the command of Christ to make disciples of all nations.
REVEREND JOHN W. BROOKS FEBRUARY 18, 1899 - APRIL 22, 1992

We extend our love to those family members and friends whose lives are sadder because of the homegoing of these saints of God. We commend their memory to this Conference which was their home.

HOW FIRM A FOUNDATION YE SAINTS OF THE LORD
IS LAID FOR YOUR FAITH IN HIS EXCELLENT WORD
WHAT MORE CAN HE SAY THAN TO YOU HE HATH SAID TO YOU WHO FOR REFUGE TO JESUS HAVE FLED?

THE SOUL THAT ON JESUS HATH LEANED FOR REPOSE
I WILL NOT, I WILL NOT DESERT TO HIS FOES
THAT SOUL, THO' ALL HELL SHOULD ENDEAVOR TO SHAKE
I'LL NEVER, NO NEVER, NO NEVER FORSAKE

The Conference Superintendent is requested to lead in a prayer of appreciation to these ministers.

Respectfully submitted:

Reverend Roland Harrell

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONVENTION MINUTES
Falcon, NC

The 1992 Christian Education Convention was begun by congregational singing led by David Wheeler. Rev. T. E. Long gave the welcome and led the Convention in prayer.

The Presiding Officer for the Convention, Rev. Doyle Marley, General Christian Education Director, was introduced to the Convention by Rev. Bobby Forehand, Director of the North Carolina Conference Christian Education Department. Rev. Marley presented a plaque to Director Forehand for his Department leading the way in giving to the General Christian Education Department.

Rev. Marley introduced the Executive Director of Faith Venture Visuals, Miss Anna Sue Darkes, to lead a devotion. She gave an inspiring devotion on "Heart Needs" using the overhead projector in various ways to illustrate her topic.

Rev. Marley called the Convention to order and the training sessions began with Anna Sue Darkes on "30 Whys and Ways of Overhead Use", "How to Make Better Transparencies for Less," and "Mastering 4 Ways to Turn Pictures into Transparencies." Attorney Jon Forehand held workshops dealing with "Church Liability With Regards to Child Abuse."

At the close of the workshops, Rev. Forehand acknowledged the awards churches had achieved during the 1991 year in Sunday School and Youth Ministries. Listed below are the names of these churches and the awards they earned.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1992 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Annual Convention on Saturday, June 6, 1992, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC.

The convention theme was FALCON CHILDREN'S HOME MINISTERING TO THE TOTAL CHILD. Registration began at 8:30 a.m. with the NCWM District Directors in charge. Musical Prelude began at 9:15 a.m. with Mrs. Joyce Moore as pianist and Ms. Pat Deans as organist.

The convention opened at 9:30 with Mrs. Linda Thomas leading the congregation in singing praise choruses. Rev. T. E. Long, North Carolina Conference Superintendent, gave greetings and invocation. A response and welcome were given by NCWM President Mary Belle Johnson. Mrs. Faye Leggett, General WM Vice-President, gave greetings on behalf of General Women's Ministries. Rev. Raymond Potter, Field Representative for the Pentecostal Holiness Church International World Missions Department, gave a missions update and encouraged participation in the Mug-A-Month program as a means of supporting world missions.

President Mary Belle Johnson gave the "State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries" Report. She expressed her appreciation to the local WM groups and leaders who have supported the NCWM programs and helped the total program to be the successful ministry it has become. Gifts of appreciation were presented to GEMS officers, MWF Director Mrs. Sylvia Long, NCWM Historian Dorothy Boyette, and the District Directors. Awards earned for the year by the local WM Groups were announced. These are listed in the "State of North Carolina Women's Ministries" booklet. Regenia Whitfield presented a fund-raising idea.

Vice-President Westa Barefoot gave the Memoirs Report and used several ladies to light candles to represent those WM members who have departed this life and gone to be with the Lord during the past year. She challenged those ladies present to keep the flames glowing, to pass the light, and to never let it go out.

Linda Thomas led the congregation in worship choruses and introduced the program. She gave remarks regarding the growth and changes in the ministry of Falcon Children's Home over the years and then introduced Rev. Wiley Clark, Falcon Children's Home Superintendent. Following remarks by Rev. Clark, an inspiring devotion was given by Mrs. Ginger Wheeler, a member of the staff at the home. She sang a song entitled, "Take Time" and spoke on the need of the house parents and staff members at the Home taking time to be ministered to so they could effectively minister to the needs of the children. She emphasized that as Christians we must take time to be with God.

Haywood Graham, a long-time resident of Falcon Children's Home who is now a student at the North Carolina School of the Arts, gave a testimony and sang beautiful renditions of "My Tribute" and "Amazing Grace".

Rev. Ben Minter, Administrative Assistant at Falcon Children's Home, was the speaker and gave a talk which was accompanied by visuals on "The Total Child". He shared with the congregation that, in order to meet the needs of the children in the Home, they must minister to the physical, emotional, social, and spiritual needs in their lives. Following his presentation, Rev. Clark gave a summary of the work that is going on at the home and expressed appreciation to the North Carolina Women's Ministry for support and cooperation through the years.

Rev. Marvin Whitfield gave a brief presentation on the Alternative to Abortion program which he supervises as part of the Falcon Children's Home outreach. He talked about the Royal Home which is being opened for unwed expectant mothers and the ministry that is beginning in that area. Following his presentation, the local WM representatives were invited to come forward and place their gifts for the Royal Home project (furnishing one bedroom) in a cradle that was placed on the podium. While these gifts were being brought forward, Emma Thomas sang "Cradle Song".

Closing remarks were made by President Johnson and Mrs. Sue Parker led in the benediction.

The lovely floral arrangement for the Convention was furnished by Kinston First Church Women's Ministries.

Respectfully Submitted,
Linda M. Thomas

REPORT of the PRESIDENT

PERSONAL:

"God isn't glorified in my life if I try to wear my best friend's personality. I must be who I was created to be. And I must reach out to others in a way that is both sensitive to the person with whom I am talking and consistent with my own personality."

Rebecca Manley Pippert

The Department of Women's Ministries has gifted me with many friends who do allow me to be what I was created to be. Friends who allow me to function in the "Mary Belle" personality arena.

I sincerely admire you for who you are and as your leader I appreciate your personality traits that are constant reminders that each lady has original thinking ability, her giftedness, and her own amazing mentality.

A combination of over 4,000 personalities creates the great North Carolina Conference Women's Ministries.

My life has consisted of many activities that have enriched my spiritual growth the past year. Some highlights of the year are:

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES CONVENTION
MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

Proverbs 31 paints a beautiful picture of a virtuous woman. In one section of this portrait, you will find a burning candle. The last portion of verse 18 reads, "Her candle goeth not out by night." The candle burns -- through the night -- to give light to all who are in the house. It is a light to guide through the darkness. I has been stated that some people go through life as a torch, making a big light as it passes through but burning out very quickly, leaving nothing behind. It is much better to be a candle, to burn longer, and to leave many lights along the path of life. We want to recognize some of the virtuous women who were a vital part of our North Carolina Women's Ministries who have passed through this life as a burning candle and whose flames have burned to light other candles along the way.

Ladies, as you have lit your candle as a symbol that you will continue to carry the light of the one before you, may you carry this light always with you in your hearts. Keep the flame buring -- it will make a difference. Before you know, the room will be glowing with light from the flame of one candle of a virtuous woman.
We will miss these precious women whom we memorialize today, but they would say to us "Don't let my candle go out! Pass the light on."
Let us join in silent prayer in honor of their memory.
Lord, thank you that our lives have been touched by YOUR LIGHT as it has burned through these precious lives. Keep their memory alive in our hearts, we pray. AMEN.

Target 2000

GOALS

1. To make the multiplying of believers and the multiplying of churches the top priority of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

2. To develop shepherds' hearts so that we can be trusted with the new believers God wants to give us.

3. To mobilize every member of the Pentecostal Holiness Church to discover, develop and deploy his spiritual gifts.

4. To Take Twenty minutes daily in prayer for world evangelization.

5. To plant strong churches in 50 world-class cities.

6. To reach six million members worldwide by AD 2000.
